Mick

It seems that you were aware that the existing shed would be extended (the last frame) so this is not an unplanned expansion of the unapproved shed? I cannot remember it ever being discussed?

Thanks for D Rs email address.

Hi Paul,
Julie must be using a lawyer to help her out of the impasse we are in. I used one two years ago who advised me to go down 'misinforming the LGO' path and I'll say more on that when I get back from my w/end away.
Thanks for letting me know they were putting up the last frame.
Cheers
