Subject: Conduct of Cllr Anglin re UK Docks

Dear Rebecca,

I hope you and Emma had a pleasant summer holiday, I've spent mine planning my move back to Amble on September 14th:

Amble
Morpeth
NE65 0DY.

This was followed by the complaint and I'm sorry I left it so long to respond. Maybe I should have put UK Docks into the subject line but I feared the response:

"I must advise you that this letter is raising your historic complaint again which has been thoroughly investigated by the Council and the Local Government Ombudsman, therefore will be placed on file." or worse:

"Unfortunately, the Ombudsman's decision cannot be re-visited." followed by something like:

The council have also stated that they will no longer correspond on previous issues relating to the boat yard and its development and will now only address any new issues which arise.

You may not have seen the copy of my email to the BBC/You and Yours about the Ombudsman but if you look at the correspondence I sent Rebecca about them you will see by their second Inspector being used to hide a wrong perpetrated by South Tyneside Council.

When I first wrote to you I was aware that the Council were misusing their own complaints procedure to 'edit' my complaint as it progressed through the system till it emerged out the other end as something the LGO won't touch, such as a matter of opinion. I also noticed that the Council were prepared to misrepresent what actually went on to the Ombudsman so they found for the Council rather than the complainant.

This was being repeated when I complained that UK Docks had built their cover too high and was in breach of the second condition.

I'd worked out that they should have asked UK Docks to rebuild it to the correct height but it would have been no use to them so they would have had made a retrospective planning request which may have been turned down. This was not an option that neither they nor their main clients, the Port of Tyne nor NEXUS wanted, and they found someone on the Council prepared to say that their cover or shed was approved when it wasn't.

One day the truth will emerge and goodness knows what will happen. Meanwhile Councils all over the Country will carry on covering up the malpractices of their staff until the Ombudsman scam is exposed. Please don't think it is just restricted to South Tyneside Council and their Planning Department.

Yours sincerely
Michael Dawson
